

PUA Training Message Templates.

Hi,

Since you are a marketer of dating sites, and your customers are men most likely, and those men are looking to see how they can meet more women, the PUACash product is perfect for them or perfect for an upsell if they've already purchased, or if they have decided not to purchase.

We recommend the below messaging templates to use as an introduction to the product, with some persistent follow ups to engage them to signup for StealthAttraction, which is the main PUACash.com product.

Template Types:

Angle 1: Putting the user down on how they suck at talking to women.

Angle 2: Uplifting the user on how good they are, that they need to become a pickup expert and to take this course...

Angle 3: How good the course is that she (The affiliate) got tricked by guys taking this course several times into having sex with them. She recognized the way they talked to her and some of the things she said. She didn't mind, she appreciated it, and felt in control knowing that they wanted to sleep with her.
